REPORT ON ACADEMIC WRITING WORKSHOP

An academic writing workshop was virtually hosted by the Symbiosis School of International Studies on 26th November and 27th November 2020 in collaboration with ELTIS. Ms. Carolann Carrasco and Ms. Vidisha Chirmulay conducted the session. The workshop was designed by Dr. Sukalpa Chakrabarti (Associate Prof and Dy Director, SSIS). Students of batch 2020-21 attended the workshop.

The objectives of the exercise were-

1. To be able to adapt writing processes and strategies for audience, purpose, and type of task
2. To be able to demonstrate and apply knowledge of basic essay structure, including introduction, body and conclusion
3. To be able to demonstrate understanding of and apply the principles of effective paragraph structure; write concise sentences; employ quotation, paraphrase and summary.
4. To be able to employ appropriate mechanics, usage, grammar, and spelling conventions
5. To be able to employ descriptive, narrative, persuasive and expository modes
6. To be able to present focused, logical arguments
7. To learn to avoid plagiarism

On completion of the workshop a feedback document was circulated and the information was shared with the resource persons.
