

SYMBIOSIS SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

Report on Faculty Development Programme (FDP) AY 2023-2024

Date: 3rd- 7th Oct 2023

Duration: Full day for 5 days (*we consider 6 hours of training = 1 Day FDP)

Venue: SSIS Conference/ Classroom 316, SVNC.

Theme: Qualitative Research Methods and Software based Data Analysis for International Relations

Resource Person: Ms Vedika Inamdar, MonkPrayogshala, Mumbai.

Brief Overview:

Symbiosis School of International Studies organized a 5-day FDP from 3rd - 7th Oct 2023, in collaboration with STLRC (SIU) and Monk Prayogshala, Mumbai. The objective of the proposed FDP was to sensitize faculty members to qualitative research methods and software tools available for data analysis that find application in research related to international relations, such as NVIVO or ATLAS.ti. It aims to build the capacity of qualitative researchers in qualitative data management and analysis.

Learning Outcomes: By the end of the FDP, participants will be able to:

- i. Understand qualitative analysis approaches
- ii. Understand different qualitative data collection methods
- iii. Understand ways to interpret qualitative data
- iv. Learn software for qualitative data analysis (such as NVIVO, ATLAS.ti)
- v. Recognize the field implementation of qualitative research
- vi. Write qualitative grant proposals
- vii. Appraise the quality of qualitative research methods
- viii. Apply the learnings through structured assignments

The FDP was well appreciated by the faculty members and future activities will be planned based on the learnings from this programme. The programme closed with a feedback and a vote of thanks.

07.10.2023

Dr. Sukalpa Chakrabarti
Associate Professor & Deputy Director,
SSIS.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

3rd to 7th October, 2023

Theme : Qualitative Research Methods and Software based Data Analysis for International Relations

