

SYMBIOSIS SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

CONSTITUTION DAY CELEBRATION ek Bharat shreshat bharat club

On the eve constitution day, Symbiosis School of International Studies(SSIS), Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat, Club Organized a virtual event in which students of both the batches took part. The program began at 2:30 pm with a presentation by Aarushi Gupta, on the Preamble of the Indian constitution which is the "heart and soul" of the constitution, the presentation was 15 minutes long, it was very informative and precise focusing on the importance, its nature, and the less the known discussion behind the Preamble.

At the beginning of the debate a basic introduction and current situation of the Reservation in education was shared. The topic of, 'Creamy layer' was also covered during the debate. Anirban Dutta spoke against the motion, raising the demerits of reservation and how it is leading to a "brain drain". Samanay Sharma countered the views of Anirban and pointed out how and why the system of reservation is very crucial for those who suffered discrimination.

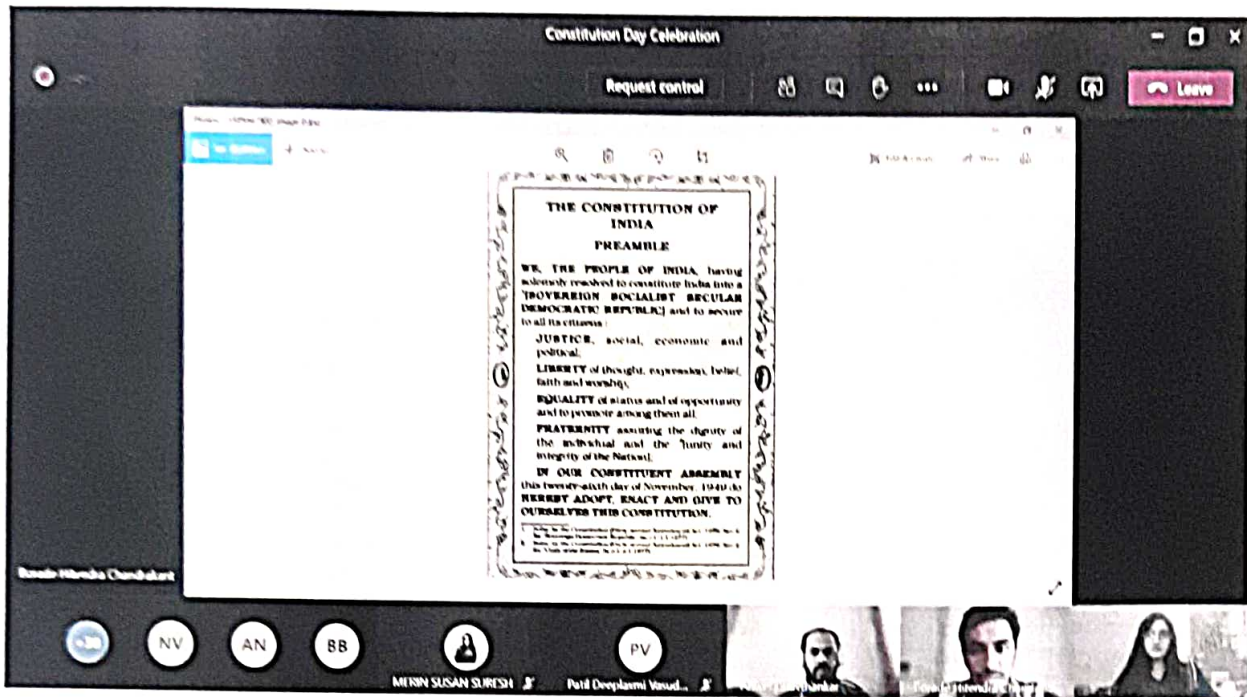

Then Tanishk Saxena from batch 2019-21, unraveled both the pros & cons of reservation. Tanishk was joined by his batchmate Radhika Mall, who brought a new perspective by talking about providing reservation to transgender.

At the end of the debate, Prof. Aniket Bhavthankar discussed the relevance of the article 15 & 16 concerning aspect of reservation. The debate was then concluded with a warm note of thanks by the club. Total 13 students participated in the event.

On 26 of November, at 11 am, celebration of Constitution Day was concluded when students and faculty of SSIS read the Preamble of Indian Constitution. The Director of the school, Ms. Shivali Lawale expressed her thoughts on relevance of the Indian constitution and why each and every Indian should understand the essence of the constitution to become a democratic State. Total 15 students participated in the celebration.

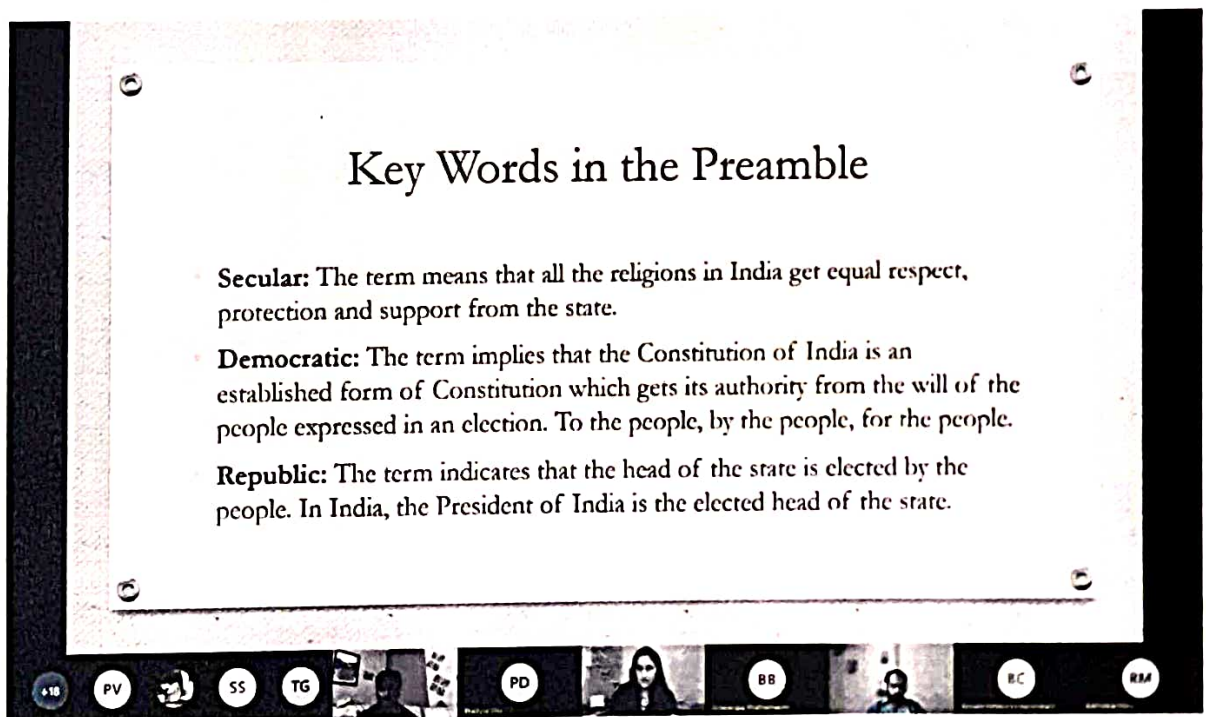

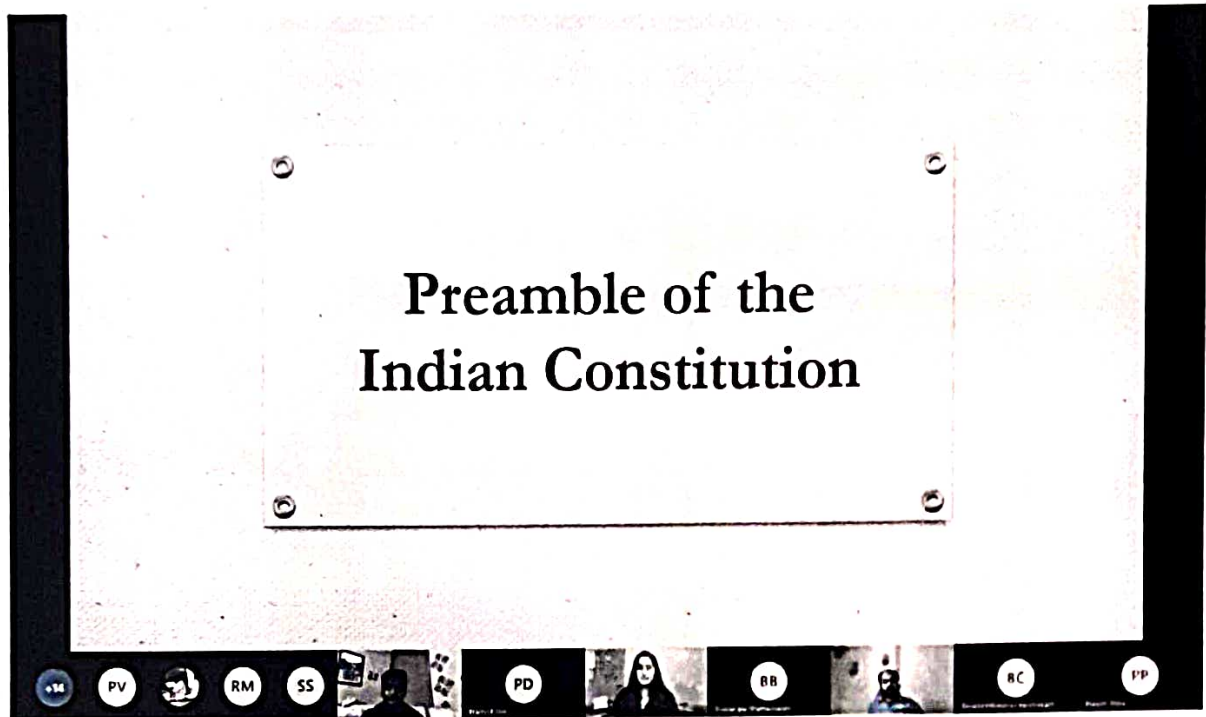

॥ वसुधैव कुटुम्बकम् ॥
SSIS

Screenshots of the virtual meet for reading the Preamble on November 26, 2020, 11 am

Ashwathi
SSIS

Screenshots of debate on the eve of constitution day

Shivam

॥वसुधैव कुटुम्बकम्॥
SSIS